Activities

At Malama Umoyo there are no fixed safari schedules – you are able to choose from a range of activities guided by our own team of safari experts.

Game Drives

We are able to offer both morning and evening Game Drives in a fully equipped open topped safari vehicle. You will be accompanied by an experienced safari guide with a wealth of knowledge about the local area and its wildlife.

$65 per person.

based on minimum of 2 people*

excludes National Park entry fees*

Walking Safari

South Luangwa is renowned for its Walking Safaris which provide an an excellent opportunity to meet the local wildlife in its own world. Accompanied by both an experienced guide and armed scout you will be able to explore the African bush and learn the smaller details often missed from a vehicle.

$70 per person.

* based on minimum of 3 people

 excludes National Park entry fees

 excludes cost of scout (currently $50 per group)

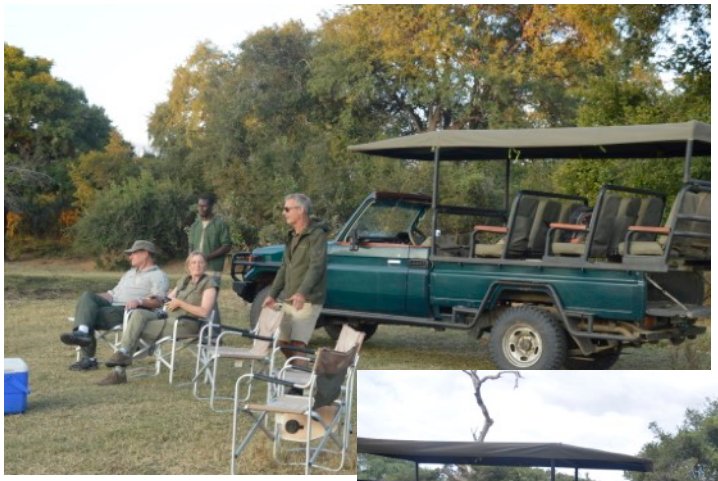
Full Day Safari with lunch in the bush

Why not opt for a full day safari. This provides an opportunity to go deeper into the National Park and enjoy more remote areas, totally off the beaten track.
What better way to enjoy the real Africa than to stop beside a lagoon and allow the wildlife to come to you as you enjoy a relaxed, leisurely lunch prepared by our chef.



$135 per person.

based on minimum of 2 people*

excludes Park Entry Fee*

Camping in the Bush

For the more adventurous traveller we can arrange for you to spend the night under canvas in the bush. The team will set up camp ahead of your afternoon arrival. Our chef will provide a delicious evening meal following which you can share stories of the bush with your guide and fellow travellers around the campfire.

The following day, after an early light breakfast you will walk to Malama Umoyo Bush Camp with your experienced guide and armed scout.

$300 per person.

 based on minimum of 2 people*

 excludes cost of scout (currently $100 per group)*

Other activities which can be arranged on request;

Sundowners on the banks of the Luangwa River

Watch the sun setting over the Luangwa River whilst enjoying a sundowner. There are a number of beautiful locations nearby where you can enjoy the breathtaking colours of an African Sunset.

Fishing

For the keen angler we can arrange for you to fish in the Luangwa from the rocks within the camp. Our team are on hand to accompany you, provide basic equipment and to assist as required.

Visit to Local village

1km from Malama Umoyo Bush Camp is the village of Malanga, which has a school (Malanga School), a medical centre, a Church (St Thomas) and a small shop. The staff working at Malama Umoyo live here with their families. Many of the people live in simple traditional huts.
We are able organise a guided visit of the village

$10 per person.
